NOTE FOR: TONY LAKEApproved for Release CIA Historical Collections Division AR 70-14 1OCT2013FROM: DON KERRICK*SUBJECT: Dayton SITREP #2; November 4, 1995, 10:20pm.

Dreary, cold skies over Dayton on day three. Parties remain warm and receptive to one another, but showing almost no movement on key issues - yet.

Friday night dinner under wing of B-52 and Stealth F-117 and in view of tomahawk missiles in Air Museum appropriate setting for peace talks. Laughter and camaraderie amongst all sides, and some interesting side talks (Chris Hill - Krajisnik, Sloba - Harris, Kerrick - Kulevic, etc. Core issues remain untouched.

Although press leads one to believe Saturday recreation day, serious talks continued on map, constitution, elections, and Federation, plus more side talks. Ishinger had two useful hours with Sloba, helping our cause.

U.S. meeting with Izetbegovic carved some progress on constitution and elections, yet Milosevic and Izy retain opposite views on election of national parliament and presidency. Bosnians making progress on developing internal positions, but differences remain evident. Izy/Mo in sync with Harris S on margin. At Dick Holbrooke's urging, Izy agreed to talk directly with Milosevic on Sunday. Mo took Izy and Bosnian party to Louisville for Tulane football game Saturday p.m.

Much effort during day on Christian Science Monitor reporter David Rohde, who is apparently alive. We are hoping for Embassy Sarajevo access Sunday. Holbrooke met with ten members of Rohde family here today.

Milosevic hosted dinner Saturday night at Officers Club for U.S. delegation. Chris Spirou had lobsters flown in from Maine. Milosevic testing each of us separately.

Issue: Need your help to prevent premature negative decision on U.S./RU force in Eastern Slavonia until prospects for settlement unfold next week. No decision needed now. Will advise on progress.
